- 36. The class consists of consumers who received the same form letters, as did the Plaintiff.
- 37. The Class consists of all persons whom Defendants' records reflect resided in the state of California and who were sent a collection letter (a) bearing the Defendant's letterhead in substantially the same form as the letter sent to the Plaintiff, (b) the collection letter was sent to a consumers seeking payment of a consumer debt; and (c) and that the letter contained violations of 15 U.S.C. § 1692e with false and deceptive language.
- 38. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, a class action is appropriate and preferable in this case because:
- (A) Based on the fact that the collection letters that are at the heart of this litigation are mass-mailed and computer generated form letters, the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable.
- (B) There are questions of law and fact common to the class and these questions predominate over any questions affecting only individual class members. The principal question presented by this claim is whether the Defendants violated the FDCPA by failing to follow appropriate procedures.
- (C) The only individual issue is the identification of the consumers who received the letters, (i.e. the class members), a matter capable of ministerial determination from the records of Defendants.
- (D) The claims of the plaintiff are typical of those of the class members. All are based on the same facts and legal theories.
- (E) The plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent the class members' interests. The plaintiff has retained counsel experienced in bringing class actions and collection-abuse claims. The plaintiff's interests are consistent with those of the members of the class.
  - 39. A class action is superior for the fair and efficient adjudication of the class members' claims. Congress specifically envisions class actions as a principal means of enforcing the FDCPA. 15 U.S.C. 1692(k). The members of the class are generally unsophisticated individuals, whose rights will not be vindicated in the absence of a class action. Prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the classes would create the risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications resulting in the establishment of inconsistent or varying standards for the parties and would not be in the interest of judicial economy.

- 40. If the facts are discovered to be appropriate, the plaintiff will seek to certify a class pursuant to Rule 23(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
- 41. Collection letters, such as those sent by the Defendants are to be evaluated by the objective standard of the hypothetical "least sophisticated consumer."
- 42. Defendants violated the FDCPA. Defendants' violations include, but are not limited to, the following:
  - Defendants violated 15 U.S.C. § 1692e by using false representations and deceptive means in an attempt to collect a debt;
  - ii. Defendants violated 15 U.S.C. § 1692g by contradicting plaintiff's rights;
  - iii. Defendants violated 15 U.S.C. § 1692d by harassing the consumer.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully prays that judgment be entered against the Defendants in the amount of:

- (a) Statutory damages and actual damages pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1692k in an amount to be determined at the time of trial on behalf of the class on the first cause of action.
- (b) Statutory damages and actual damages pursuant to Civil Code §1788.30 et seq., as to the fourth cause of action.
- (c) Costs and reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1692k and Civil Code §1788.30, et seq.
  - (d) For such other and further relief as may be just and proper.
  - (e) Plaintiffs requests trial by jury on all issues so triable.
